THEFT OF KISSES CHARGE FAILS

Worcester Man Who Neglected to Deliver Honeyed Note Is Acquitted

Worcester, May 13.—(Special.)—The woman from Man Love, Massachusetts, who was charged with the theft of kisses from her husband, was acquitted today after a trial in the Worcester District Court.

Kisses, said to be a rare commodity, were the subject of the evidence presented, and the jury found that the woman had not stolen them.

The note introduced in court was said to be "a piece of paper" and was found to be a note from the woman to her husband, and was found to be a note from the woman to her husband.

Blood Test to Settle "Mixed Baby" Case

Atlanta, Ga., May 4.—One of the newest discoveries of modern science may be the means of solving modern instances of the "Problem of Soljomon."

The parents of Louise Madeline, claimed by two Atlanta families, may be determined by the blood test recently discovered by the Atlanta Alliance of the Parents.

It was said by him to demand that the parents of Louise Madeline
be determined by the blood test recently discovered by the Atlanta Alliance of the Parents.

The case of Louise Madeline is a case of a child who was born in Atlanta, Ga., and was claimed by two families. The case is a case of a child who was born in Atlanta, Ga., and was claimed by two families.

WADE MUST DIE FOR SLAYING

Appeal Denied, Attorneys for Murderer to Ask Governor to Intervene

Bridgewater, Ct., May 5.—The Supreme Court of Errors denied the appeal of Edward R. Wade from a sentence of Superior Court Judge George E. Hinman, to be hanged in the State Prison at Waterbury, on May 28.

Wade was convicted of the murder of George B. Nutt in the Superior court here, after a sensational trial last January.

The appeal was based entirely on the claim of error by Judge Hinman in his charges to the jury and his refusal to admit evidence exonerating the defendant.

POLICEWOMAN HOLDS MOB OF 200 AT BAY

Providence, R. I., May 5.—After a long and bitter fight against a mob of 200 men, a policewoman held them at bay for some time before they were finally dispersed.

BILL BARS CONGRESSMEN HOLDING OTHER JOBS

Washington, May 5.—Members of Congress would be prevented from engaging in any outside employment for remuneration by a measure introduced by Senator Benton of Iowa.
The measure is intended to prevent members from being paid for their services in the Senate.
